Professional Experience

- 2020-present Distinguished Professor of Food, Agricultural and Environmental Sciences in Economics and Sustainability, Ohio State University
- 2019-present Faculty Director, Sustainability Institute, Ohio State University.
- 2015-2018 Faculty Director, Sustainable and Resilient Economy Discovery Themes Initiative, Ohio State University
- 2010-present Professor, Department of Agricultural, Environmental & Development Economics, Ohio State University
- 2007-2008 Visiting Professor, Professorship for Environmental Economics and Policy, ETH Zürich and Social and Industrial Ecology, Dept. of Geography, University of Zürich
- 2005-2010 Associate Professor, Department of Agricultural, Environmental & Development Economics, Ohio State University
- 1998-2005 Assistant Professor, Department of Agricultural, Environmental & Development Economics, Ohio State University

Education

University of Maryland, College Park, MD. 1998. Ph.D., Agricultural and Resource Economics.
Washington University, St. Louis, MO. AB, 1988. Major fields: German and History.

Areas of Interest

Land use change, management and policy; ecosystem services; integrated land-water systems models; applied spatial analysis and econometrics; urbanization; housing & land markets; sustainability assessment; Great Lakes communities and resilience; community-engaged research and broadening participation

Research Leadership Activities

Faculty Director, Sustainability Institute at Ohio State. Direct interdisciplinary research and academic activities for large, university institute aimed at catalyzing sustainability research, teaching, engagement and campus stewardship at Ohio State; foster collaborations among faculty in sustainability science across natural, physical and social sciences, engineering, public health, planning, policy and the humanities; partner with academic units to mentor 31 jointly hired SI core faculty from across 18 units; develop extramural funding opportunities and external partnerships; lead sustainability education and learning committee to promote interdisciplinary curriculum development and coordination. Website: <https://si.osu.edu/>

PI, Great Lakes Food-Energy-Water Systems Research Project. Lead an interdisciplinary team to develop integrated modeling of food, energy and water systems in the Great Lakes, including coupled models of farmer land use and management decisions and nutrient transport in the Maumee watershed of Lake Erie to assess the benefits of nutrient reduction to Lake Erie ecosystem services and costs to farmers. Funding: NSF Innovations at the Nexus of Food, Energy, Water Systems, USDA NIFA Resilient Agriculture Under a Changing Climate, NSF Coupled Natural-Human Systems Program, Ohio Sea Grant. Website: <https://drfews.osu.edu>

Co-PI, EmPOWERment Convergent Graduate Training Program for a Sustainable Energy Future. Work collaboratively with faculty from engineering, physical and environmental sciences, social sciences, and policy to develop and lead an interdisciplinary research graduate program that provides training and support to cohorts of PhD students engaged in basic and applied research on energy technologies, adoption, systems analysis, and policy. Funding: NSF National Research Traineeship (NRT) Program. Website: <https://energyfuture.osu.edu/>

Distinctions and Awards

Distinguished Professor of Food, Agricultural and Environmental Sciences in Economics and Sustainability. Selected as one of four inaugural honorees within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences, Ohio State University, 2020-current.

Food Systems Leadership Institute (FSLI) Fellow, Cohort 14, 2018-2020

Member, Agricultural and Applied Economics Association Executive Board, 2019-2022. Provide guidance and strategic direction to an international membership organization of 2,500 agricultural and applied economists working in academia, public and private sectors.

Member, US EPA Board of Scientific Councilors (BOSC) Sustainable and Healthy Communities Subcommittee, Sept 2014-Aug 2016, Feb 2018-current. Serve as member of this federal advisory committee that provides advice and recommendations to the EPA's Office of Research and Development and assessment of research conducted by EPA scientists on community sustainability topics including public health and well-being; sustainability indicators and systems-based assessment methods; decision science and support tools; sustainable approaches for contaminated sites and materials management. Website: <https://www.epa.gov/bosc/sustainable-and-healthy-communities-subcommittee>

Member, Board of Directors, Association of Environmental and Resource Economists, 2015-2018. Provide guidance and strategic direction to an international membership organization of over 1,000 environmental and resource economists working in over 30 countries from academia, public and private sectors.

Member, National Science Foundation Advisory Committee for Environmental Research and Education Subcommittee on Sustainable Urban Systems, 2017-2018. Coauthored a report that articulates a compelling research agenda that will transform understanding of sustainable urban systems, including a clear statement of the need for long-term research, a synthesis of the current work, and short and long-term research priorities. <https://www.nsf.gov/ere/ereweb/ac-ere/sustainable-urban-systems.pdf>

Member, National Research Council Land Change Modeling Committee, 2011-2012. Coauthored report that provides a summary and evaluation of land change modeling approaches, and their theoretical and empirical underpinnings, suggests guidance for their appropriate application, and makes recommendations to further advance the science, data, and cyberinfrastructure of land change modeling. <https://www.nap.edu/catalog/18385/advancing-land-change-modeling-opportunities-and-research-requirements>

Multi-Disciplinary Team Award, College of Food, Agricultural and Environmental Sciences, Ohio State University, 2019

North American Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA) Educator Award, 2015

Sustainability Science Award, Ecological Society of America, 2009

Distinguished Research Award, Top Junior Faculty, Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, Ohio State University, 2009

Geoffrey J.D. Hewings Award for Distinguished Young Scholar in Regional Science, North American Regional Science Council, 2008

Best Paper, 1st Runner-Up, North American Association for Computational Social and Organizational Science Conference, 2004

Article of the Year Award, Northeast Agricultural and Resource Economics Association, 2003

Best Conference Paper on Housing and Community Development, American Collegiate Schools of Planning Conference, 2002

MacArthur Foundation Research Fellowship, 1994-1997

- “Multiscale dynamics and emergent patterns in urban spatial systems,” James S. McDonnell Foundation, Study of Complex Systems Program, 2008-2012. PI’s: Elena G. Irwin and Ciriya Jayaprakash. Amount: $406,834. Dates: 9/2008 – 8/2013.
- “Leveraging natural amenities for sustainable development in the Great Lakes region.” NOAA/Ohio Sea Grant, 2010-2012. PIs: Mark Partridge, Elena G. Irwin and Heather Stephens. Amount: $177,313. Dates: 2/2010 – 12/2012.
- “Designing effective land management policies for the 21st century Ohio River Basin,” Ohio State University Climate-Water-Carbon Initiative, 2009-2013. PI’s: Charles Goebel, Elena G. Irwin, Richard Moore, Robyn Wilson. Amount: $1.3 million. Dates: 9/2008 – 8/2012.
- “Construction of property tax database.” Cooperative Agreement, Economic Research Service, USDA 2008-2009. PI’s: Michael Brady, Elena G. Irwin, Cindy Nickerson, Charles Towe. Amount: $137,500. Dates: 9/2008 – 12/2011.
- “Analysis of the patterns and causes of fragmented urban development into rural areas using geocoded parcel data.” Cooperative Agreement, Economic Research Service, USDA 2008-2009. PI’s: Elena G. Irwin and Michael Brady. Amount: $18,002. Dates: 9/2008 – 12/2011.
- “Using surveys, experiments and agent-based models to better understand recreation and tourism decision in the Lake Erie region.” NOAA/Ohio Sea Grant, 2006-2010. PIs: Elena G. Irwin and Tim Haab. Amount: $117,193.
- “Large lake ecosystems: Modeling the interactions among human, biological and physical processes.” NSF Biocomplexity Program, 2004-2008. PI: David Culver. Co-PI’s: Elena Irwin, Alan Randall, Jeff Reutter. Amount: $1.4 million.

“Agricultural adaptation at the rural-urban interface: Can communities make a difference?” National Research Initiative Competitive Grants Program, US Department of Agriculture, Sept. 2004 – Aug 2007. Principal investigator: Jeff Sharp. Co-PIs: Doug Jackson-Smith, Larry Libby, Elena Irwin.

“The influence of water quality and lake amenities on the demand for residential development around Lake Erie.” NOAA/Ohio Sea Grant, 2004-2006. PI’s: Elena Irwin and Tim Haab. Amount: $107,000.

“The value of parkland in Montgomery County, Ohio.” Montgomery County Five Rivers MetroParks and Miami Valley Regional Planning Commission, 2004. PI: Elena Irwin. Amount: $20,000.

“Developing a spatial watershed model to predict the effects of watershed policies on coastal water quality and habitat change.” NOAA/Ohio Sea Grant, 2003-2005. Principal Investigators: Jay Martin, Elena Irwin, Tim Granata, William Mitch. Amount: $94,000.

“The impact of the September 11th terrorist attacks on factors that influence the decision to stay, remodel or move among American metropolitan households.” Short Grant Exploratory Research, National Science Foundation, 2001. Principal Investigators: Hazel Morrow-Jones and Elena G. Irwin. Amount: $40,000.

“Understanding the links between policy and patterns of land use change in urbanizing watersheds: A spatial economic model of land use conversion.” NOAA/Ohio Sea Grant, 20002002. Principal Investigator: Elena Irwin. Amount: $64,000.

Internal Funding

Current

“Smart Columbus impacts assessment,” Smart@OhioState Initiative. PI: Akar, G. Co-PIs: Irwin, E., Miller, H.J. Amount: $333,515

Past

“Urbanization and Lake Erie tributary water quality: A dynamic spatial model with policy scenarios.” OARDC Interdisciplinary Grants Program. PIs: Elena G. Irwin and Jay Martin. Amount: $100,000.

“Assessing the impact of animal agriculture on exurban property values using a spatially explicit hedonic analysis.” Center for Urban and Regional Analysis, Ohio State University, 2002-2003. PI’s: Brian Roe, Jon Rausch, Elena Irwin. Amount: $28,000.

“Understanding exurban change in Ohio and the Midwest.” Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center Seed Grant, 2002-03. PI: Elena Irwin. Collaborators: Jeff Sharp, Larry Libby. Amount: $25,000.

“Model development: The human and social dimensions of biocomplexity.” Seed grant from the Environmental Policy Initiative (EPI) in support of the EPI biocomplexity working group, June 2001. PI’s: Elena Irwin and Keith Warren. Amount: $25,000.

“Using conjoint analysis to identify household preferences for open space and neo-traditional neighborhoods,” Funding received from OSU Swank Program in Rural-Urban Policy, 2001. Principal Investigators: Elena Irwin and Hazel Morrow-Jones. Amount: $8,000.

“Exurban regional change program,” Funding received from Project Reinvent and OSU Swank Program in Rural-Urban Policy, 2000. Principal Investigators: Jeff Sharp and Elena Irwin. Amount: $37,000.

“Exurban regional change program,” Funding received from the OSU Agro-Ecosystems Management Program, 2000. Principal Investigators: Jeff Sharp and Elena Irwin. Amount: $18,000.

“Assessing the role of public services in households’ relocation decisions,” Funding received from the OSU Committee on Urban Affairs, 2000. Principal Investigator: Elena Irwin. Amount: $17,000.

“Moving and staying among American homeowners: Implications for regional growth and governance,” Funding received from OSU Committee on Urban Affairs, 2000. Principal Investigators: Hazel Morrow-Jones and Elena Irwin. Amount: $17,000.

“To move or not to move: Household relocation decisions and causes of suburbanization.” Funding received from the University Seed Grant Program, 2000. Principal Investigator: Elena Irwin. Amount: $20,000.

“Predicting patterns of land use change: A spatial economic model of land use conversion.” Seed funding received from Environmental Policy Institute, OSU, 1999. Principal Investigator: Elena Irwin. Amount: $7,000.

Invited Talks, Panels, Seminars

Irwin, E.G. 2020. Invited panelist. “Downscaling sustainability theory and measurement to subnational regional scales.” National Academies Panel on Measuring Progress toward Sustainable Development, November 30, 2020. Virtual session.

Irwin, E.G. 2020. Invited panelist. Diversity and Inclusion in Agricultural and Applied Economics, CWAE-COSBAE AAEA Tract Session, 2020 AAEA Virtual Annual Meeting, August 27, 2020. Virtual session.

Irwin, E.G. 2020. Invited panelist. Gordon Rausser Keynote Panel on "Sustainability: the interface of food, agriculture, and the environment." AAEA Annual Meeting, August 10, 2020. Virtual session.

Irwin, E.G. 2019. The Role of Economics and Integrated Modeling for Sustainability Science. Invited keynote talk, Heartland Environmental and Resource Economics Workshop, University of Illinois, September 28-29, 2019

Irwin, E.G. 2019. An Integrated Economic-Hydrological Model of the Western Lake Erie Basin. Presented at the Resource Economics and Management Department, Davis College of Agriculture, Natural Resources and Design, West Virginia University, November 8, 2019

Irwin, E.G. 2019. Reflecting on the Multidisciplinary Enterprise. Invited talk, AAEA Multi-disciplinary Research Leaders Conference, Boston, MA, June 14, 2019

Irwin, E.G. 2018. Interdisciplinary Research Organizations: Pathways to Success Workshop 2. Invited participant. National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center SESYNC and University of Michigan. Ann Arbor, MI, November 15-17, 2018.

Irwin, E.G. 2018. “Economics of Well-Being: An Applied Economist Perspective.” Invited panelist, Integrating Philosophical and Economic Perspectives on Well-Being Ohio State University, November 2, 2018.

Irwin, E.G. 2018. “Integrated Economic-Ecological Modeling of Land Water Systems.” Invited presentation, Iowa State University, Integrated Assessment Modeling Workshop, April 15-16, 2018.

Irwin, E.G. 2018. “A Spatially Integrated Economic-Ecological Model of Farmers’ Land Management Decisions and Water Quality Outcomes in Lake Erie.” Invited seminar, National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center SESYNC. Annapolis, MD, February 13, 2018.

Irwin, E.G. 2017. Human Adaptations in Food, Energy and Water Systems. Invited presentation given at the FEWESTERN Research Challenge Meeting, University of Tennessee, December 7-9, 2017.

Irwin, E.G. 2017. The expanding ethanol market and farmland values: Identifying the changing influence of proximity to agricultural market channels.” Paper with Wendong Zhang. Invited seminar presented at the University of Kentucky Department of Economics, Lexington, KY, October 13, 2017.

Irwin, E.G. 2017. Agent-based modeling workshop, San Diego CA, March 20-21, 2017.
