Web-page: <http://aede.osu.edu/research/andersons-program/teaching>

Teaching Assistant:

Tyler Morin

Class Time: Tuesday/Thursday, 12.45-2:05 pm, Hopkins Hall, Rm 250

Office Hours: I have no specific office hours instead students are strongly encouraged to either talk to me after class or to set up an appointment with me that suits both our schedules. Feel free to communicate with me in person, by e-mail or phone.

Course Objectives: The key objective of this class is to understand the interaction between the world economy and international commerce. This involves understanding the causes and effects of international trade in goods and services, and how trade policies and trade liberalization through the World Trade Organization (WTO) and regional free trade agreements such as the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) can affect international economic integration.

Course Information:

Credit Hours: 3

Prerequisites: ECON 2001/2001H; AEDE 2001/2001H, or permission from the instructor.

Reading Materials: No specific book will be assigned for this class. Course readings will be placed on Canvas. Class notes can be found on Canvas.

Grading and Course Evaluation:

Grading: The course grade will be determined as follows:

Exam I	(Tuesday, February 11 – normal class time)
Exam II	(Tuesday, March 17 – normal class time)
Exam III	(Thursday, April 23 – 2.00-3.45 pm)
Your overall exam score will be based on the sum of your best score from Exams I and II, plus your score from Exam III *:
Podcast summaries	(Due date – Friday April 17, 12.00 midnight):	60%
Quizzes:		15%
Attendance:		20%
		5%

Students are required to take all three exams

Final Grade: A 95.0 - 100	B- 80.0 - 83.0	D+ 67.0 - 70.0
A- 90.0 - 95.0	C+ 77.0 - 80.0	D 60.0 - 67.0
B+ 87.0 - 90.0	C 73.0 - 77.0	E < 60.0
B 83.0 - 87.0	C- 70.0 - 73.0

There may be a curve to the final course grade depending on overall performance of the class. There will be opportunity for extra credit through participation in class, and also writing additional Podcast summaries – more details as the semester unfolds.

Note on exams: No make-up exams are given without documents indicating circumstances beyond your control that caused you to miss the official dates. Except under the most unusual circumstances, the instructor needs to be notified prior to the exam. If the absence is for OSU travel/a scheduled event, notify instructor at least one week in advance of the exam date.

Podcast Summaries: A summary of three Peterson Institute for International Economics (PIIE) Trade Talk podcasts is required for the course. You can choose three from the podcasts accessible through the link(s) on Canvas. Each summary should be typed in 12 point font, double-spaced and no longer than 1 page. Each summary should consist of:

1. A brief description of the Podcast topic
2. An outline of the main points made in the Podcast
3. Your opinion of what you heard and learned from the Podcast

No late summaries will be accepted after 12.00 midnight of the due date – April 17. Please email your all summaries to sheldon.1@osu.edu combined as a single pdf file.

Examinations: These will consist of both short-answer questions and objective (multiple-choice, true/false, definitions) questions.

Academic Misconduct

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

Disability Statement

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Mental Health Statement

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student’s ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life’s Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614-292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkun Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org.

Statement on Title IX

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

Statement on Diversity

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

Lauren's Promise—I will listen and believe you if someone is threatening you

Lauren McCluskey, a 21-year-old honors student athlete, was murdered on Oct. 22, 2018, by a man she briefly dated on the University of Utah Campus. We must all take actions to ensure this never happens again.

Any form of sexual harassment or violence will not be excused or tolerated at The Ohio State University.

In cases of sexual harassment or violence, Ohio State will:

- Respond promptly and effectively to sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking,
- Provide interim measures as necessary
- Provide confidential and non-confidential support resources,
- Conduct a thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation,
- Provide remedies as necessary.

If you are experiencing sexual assault, relationship violence, or stalking, you can take the following actions:

- If you are in immediate danger, call 911.
- Report it to me, and I will connect you to resources.
- Seek confidential sources of support and help:
 - Counseling and Consultation Service Available 24/7 through the Office of Student Life, ccs.osu.edu, 614-292-5766

- Medical services through the Office of Student Life Wilce Student Health Center, shs.osu.edu, 614-292-4321
- Legal services through Student Legal Services, Studentlegal.osu.edu, 614.292-5853

OSU's Office of Institutional Equity has established procedures and resources for Sexual Misconduct Response and Prevention. They are detailed here:
